ASID CANDIDATE COMMITMENT FORM, NON-DISCLOSURE & CONFLICT OF INTEREST AGREEMENT

I affirm that I meet the eligibility requirements to serve on an ASID chapter board and that my membership must remain current during my tenure of service.

I understand that ASID Chapters are volunteer run management boards and will require my successful completion of all mandatory training whether virtual or in person, and that expenses may not be covered by ASID, Inc., or the chapter.

I confirm that I have not received a reprimand, censure, or have had my membership suspended as a result of action by an ASID Disciplinary Committee. I further understand that should these events occur during my term it will result in immediate expulsion from the board and thereafter I shall be permanently precluded from holding elected office in the Society or in any of its chapters.

I will, at all times, act solely in the best interests of the Society, the chapter and its members, and will exercise my duties in compliance with the Society's Bylaws, Policies, Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct, Non-Disclosure and Conflict of Interest Policy, and the operational policies of the chapter.

I understand that among other obligations I will have as a board member are the obligations of fiduciary duties of care, loyalty, obedience and confidentiality, all of which have been explained and/or made available to me. (Check all indicating you have read and understand the fiduciary responsibilities.)

- Duty of Loyalty - set aside personal interests and act in the best interests of the organization.
- Duty of Care - act reasonably to maintain the safety and well-being of the organization and individuals.
- Duty of Obedience - act to uphold legal compliance and in service of the mission.
- Duty of Confidentiality - act to maintain board trust for appropriate deliberations by protecting conversations, actions, documents from non-board members.

Among those duties are the obligations to (i) disclose any potential personal conflict of interest I may have in regard to any proposed chapter action or activity, and (ii) maintain the confidentiality of board discussions held within meetings and not disclose decisions made by board, until such time as the chapter's president has determined to disclose such decisions.

Hello, Marilyn! Please see my attached headshot and here is my bio:

To her clients, Nikki Klugh is their interior design dream come true. To the media, Nikki is a design expert celebrated for her striking aesthetic and warm, inviting personality. To women around the world, Nikki is recognized as a trusted professional speaker and a dedicated advocate for women's empowerment.

With over 20 years of experience, Nikki has established herself as a luxury interior designer, creating sacred spaces that transform the way people live, feel, and function. As a mother of four and a military wife, she has embraced adaptability and resilience, expanding her influence across multiple cities and earning a devoted following nationwide. Her ability to seamlessly blend beauty with purpose has made the name Nikki Klugh synonymous with exceptional design and elevated living.

As an NCIDQ certificate holder since 2018, Nikki enjoys working on both commercial and residential projects. Her leadership and dedication to the design industry are evident through her service as the ASID Director of Membership in San Diego from 2015 to 2016 and her recent appointment as the ASID Director of Communication in Omaha. She has played a pivotal role in prestigious initiatives, including her participation in the Black Artists + Designers Guild's Obsidian House project in 2021 and the design of the Zeta Phi Beta, Inc. Headquarters in Washington, D.C. In addition, Nikki has developed her own interior design show, On The Move with Nikki Klugh, where she shares her passion and expertise with a wider audience.

Upon her husband's retirement from the US Navy in August 2020, Nikki and her family moved to Omaha, NE. She has continued to work with clients nationwide and looks forward to serving clients locally and contributing to the community and new home she's come to love. Whether working with clients, engaging with the design community, or inspiring others through her advocacy, Nikki Klugh continues to push boundaries and redefine what it means to live beautifully!
